

I earnestly and strongly oppose the Consumer Bankers Association attempt to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers as they try to challenge and weaken the Indiana Telephone Privacy law. This privacy law has made such a difference for my peace and privacy. We need the FCC to protect us, the consumer, from attempts like the CBA's.

Katherine Wigley